The Clothing War.

EDITOR GAZETTE: In the Journal of October 3d, I find an announcement signed L. Abrams, of the White House. This announcement sets forth that other dealers in clothing keep "humbly" shops and offer "unsatisfactory goods" to the public. He also believes that these "humbly" dealers "steal the public's money." I represent, for my part of the humbuggery, Mr. Editor, I represent that when I offer "unsatisfactory goods" I always suffer for it, and not Mr. Abrams. The people have worn my goods long enough to know better than Mr. Abrams whether they come from a "humbly shop" or not. During my many years residence and business in Reno, I have made my own reputation and it is safe from the interested charges brought by this newcomer at the White House.

Now, whether I keep a humbug shop or not, I shall continue to sell the best goods in market and at the lowest rates. I shall sell men and boys clothing cheaper than "Whitely" can sell them. I shall keep more goods, and a better stock always on hand. And all of these assertions, so far from being "lies to deceive the public" can be proven by my patrons during fair week as they have been proven any time during the past ten years.

The scarcity of diamonds, gold and silver, and the difficulties met with in securing them, is a sure indication of their value. Thus it is with a valuable medicine: Dr. Aug. Kaiser's celebrated German Pulmonic Elixir, through the jealousy of rivals, has met with the most bitter opposition, and apparently almost insurmountable obstacles have been thrown in its way; but its opponents might as well try to change the course of the sun, sweep back the ocean with a broom, or put out a prairie fire with a tear. For the cure of Throat and Lung diseases, such as Coughs, Colds, Consumption and Bronchial Affections it is unequalled. Its cures are truly magical. Ask your druggists, Ochsner & Shoenaker, for it. The genuine bears the Prussian Coat of Arms, the fac-simile signature of Dr. Aug. Kaiser, and has his name blown on every 75-cent bottle. Trial bottle, 25 cents. auted

A CARD TO THE PUBLIC—I do not sell any goods 50 per cent. below cost, or even at cost, but I offer my first-class stock of clothing, furnishing goods, boots and shoes, hats and caps, trunks and valises, etc., which have been bought for cash at the lowest market rates. Therefore I wish the public to post themselves on my prices before going to the humbug shops where they are always drumming into the ear that they are selling at cost or below cost. They either bought unsatisfactory goods or they lie to deceive the public; they don't deserve to be patronized. Remember the One Price Store—The White House—No. 19 Commercial Row, next door to the postoffice.

RENO AND SURPRISE VALLEY.—Calderwood & Kern's stages will leave Reno hereafter on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, at 3 o'clock A. M., and reach Bidwell, Surprise Valley, at 6 o'clock on the following days. Returning, will leave Willow Ranch at 7 A. M. on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, arriving in Reno at 9 P. M. on the following days. Fare, $30 each way. Freight on baggage over 20 pounds, 8 cents per pound. Of See at Hammond & Wilson's stable, opposite Railroad depot. JOHN WILSON, Agent.

NOTICE.—Having established a purchasing agency, Mr. L. Brien will give his personal attention to orders of any kind, such as boots and shoes, furniture, crockery, carpets, millinery goods, groceries, etc. Being in constant business relations and having a thorough acquaintance with all the leading houses, ladies, in order through Mr. Brien, will receive the full benefit of his experience and find it more advantageous than doing their own shopping. Address letters, P. O. box 340, Sacramento, Cal.

"BLOOD WILL TELL"—I offer for sale or trade nine head of Berkshire Hogs, including my champion sweepstakes pair shown at agricultural park Reno for years 1877 and 1878. Butter, eggs, hay and wood, large tender coin not refused. A. H. BARNES, Reno, Oct. 18th 1878.

THE UNBROKEN CHASM.

There isn't quite so much talk now as there was in the centennial year of bridging the bloody chasm. The North found that the South, with characteristic indolence, shirked its fair share of the bridging. There are yet many, however, who weep over the tendency of the cold North to decline the display of much enthusiasm when called upon to fall upon the neck of the South and sob "Brother, your hand; God knows which was right." There is a pretty solid feeling on the colder side of Mason and Dixon's line that the right side in the bloody dispute wasn't at any time very hard to find and however charming poetic sinking of moral destinations may be, it is not good enough to replace common sense. Besides the other side of the chasm is inhabited by anything but weeping brethren whose hearts are breaking because we don't pool our lachrymose issues with them. There are too many red shirts and black masks among the crowd. Besides, such dispatches as the following slap the obdurate North upon a tender spot—the pocket:

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—Russell, who succeeds Waddell (Dem.) in North Carolina, states that he will not go into the Republican caucus, but will vote with the greenbackers. He favors paying all southern war claims and pensioning rebels the same as Union soldiers.

The bloody shirt has been so constantly patched and kept whole by Southern effort, that it will stand a few years more wear yet.

A POPULAR GOVERNOR.

Those radicals who sneered industriously at President Hayes and his civil service order, are now confronted by the record of John C. Fremont. That distinguished man was lately appointed governor of Arizona and has conceived it wise to obey the order referred to, both in the letter and the spirit. He takes no part in politics whatever, except to exercise his duties and privileges as a citizen. The consequence of this novel course on the part of a man appointed by government has attracted much attention and Fremont is declared in consequence to be the most popular governor that Arizona has yet been blessed with. It is certainly reasonable to believe that a devotion to politics may not be of service to the people, and yet there is also good ground for the theory that every member of a great party should help to perpetuate its power. Governor Fremont has probably done more to strengthen his party and make it popular in Arizona than if he had enlisted his talents as a ward politician. In trying to serve his party he serves first the people, and that policy never fails of recognition. President Hayes touched the secret of popularity when he said, "He serves his party best who serves his country best."

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The San Francisco Post, we are sorry to observe, is trucking to Kearney and his merry men—fawning meanly upon the unsavory crew, and getting down on its marrow bones and begging for the favor of hoodlumism and ignorance. Let us hope that the Post will succeed in its high ambition and get many subscribers at the sandlot. Uncle Tim, justly brought into celebrity by the Post as being the brother of Dennis, ought in more gratitude to put in a few hours daily in scaring up subscribers to the Post. Nobody is surprised to see the Chronicle cautiously prepare to grovel before Kearney, but with the Post it is different. People did really expect a little decency and manhood from that quarter.

Senator Sargent is quoted to the effect that California will elect three out of four congressmen at the next election, Republican. The Sacramento Bee thinks that the Republicans will do well to elect one. The congressional election in California may possibly decide who is to be the next President. The congressmen elected will determine the color of the next House and that body may have to decide the Presidential election in 1880.

James G. Fair and J. C. Flood have purchased a block of land each, on Mason street, San Francisco, and will commence the erection of their long-promised palaces. We could have predicted the late deal had we remembered their desire to build these cottages.

The Rev. Mr. Clay, Lutheran, of St. Louis, advocates a political Christian party, whose candidates should be only christians, and whose principles should be christianizing of the country. A President, he believes, could be elected on this basis. That's good. We are with brother Clay, heart and soul. The idea is a grand one, but let us understand clearly what kind of a christian we are to put up for President. As a Methodist we have conscientious scruples about Baptists and Presbyterians, Catholics, Campbellites, Seventh Day Adventists, Universalists, Episcopalians and all those heretics.

The process of Kearney's extinction in California will be very slow. If the newspapers would but agree upon the sensible and decent course of ignoring for a few weeks the loud and shallow-bragging blackguard, that would be the last of him. Nothing of the kind can be expected, however. So long as the Chronicle will report his doings the Call will follow suit, or vice versa. Kearney's notoriety was born of the war, (endless as it is mean and disgraceful) between these two papers, and it will be kept alive by the same cause—to the disgrace of San Francisco and the mortification of all decent people in it.

The San Francisco Post has learned that no consolidation has been effected or thought of between the Union and Central Pacific Railroads. The theory is now advanced that Jay Gould started the rumor because such a consolidation would enhance his own railroad property in the east. The plan proposed would materially benefit the Union Pacific Road but would be of no use whatever to the Central Pacific.

The San Francisco Bulletin has again performed, to the wonderment of the admiring interior press, its annual great journalistic feat of publishing ten columns of Thanksgiving sermons. The feat is accomplished by dispatching a dozen district telegraph errand boys, at an expense of fifteen cents each, to as many parsons for their manuscript.

The Reno Evening Gazette has recently changed proprietorship. It is now published by R. L. Fulton and W. F. Edwards, under whose management it will lose none of its brightness and worth as a newspaper. We believe that R. L. Fulton is a nephew of S. H. Fulton of this city. Success to the new firm.—R. R. Reveille.

Our western civilization is the admiration of the dwellers in the East. We have nerve on this coast, we have. The Stockton Herald reports that after Scroggins shot Davis, at Oakdale, the other day, he and his crowd sat down at a table unconcernedly and played cards till morning, leaving Davis weltering in his blood.

The standing joke in Eureka now, is for one prominent citizen to accuse another prominent citizen of having sold his vote. The newspapers are full of this delicious pleasantry. In Texas, too, the insinuation that one is a horse-thief or a stage robber passes for wit.

Bob Ingersoll is asking himself a question he cannot answer, viz, "If hogs were legal tender would pigs pass as postal currency." Novel idea that. Imagine we see a love-letter traveling about with a pork-chop tied to it. Flat you know.

Ben Butler is going to have a hand in the cipher dispatch business. He has a lot in preparation which will, he is sure, play the deuce with the Republican party.

The treasury on Wednesday purchased between 300,000 and 400,000 ounces of silver at a fraction below the London quotations.

What is Edmund about?—Cincinnati Saturday Night.

He's waiting to see Wellock's jaw.

Who says Nevada isn't pious? Every paper in the state suspended publication on Thanksgiving day.

Fire in Sacramento.

SACRAMENTO, November 28.—A fire last night on Fifth and L streets, destroyed one half of a block, including a boarding-house, a planing mill, and several barns and dwelling houses. The loss is probably $30,000. Cannot give details yet.

THE POMERANIA DISASTER.

Reported Bad Conduct of the Crew.

LONDON, November 28.—Thomas Blight, a certificated officer of the English mercantile marine, who embarked on the Pomerania at Plymouth was under examination all yesterday morning by the receiver of wrecks, and has been detained at Dover by the board of trade because of the nature of his evidence. He says the Pomerania was going at half or three-quarters speed at the time of the collision. There was a good lookout and the lights were burning, and it was not foggy. He heard no whistle or fog horn. Before the steamer sank there was time to save every life if order had been maintained. He was beside the Captain when the latter put on his life-belt. He heard no order given. It was too late for orders. One of the officers told him that the doors of the water-tight bulkheads were all open. There was no more sea than in the Thames. All could have been saved if the sailors had not rushed into the boats.

The Pomerania's masts will be taken out to-day. It is not expected that the vessel will ever be floated. The latest figures show that 94 of the crew were saved out of 111, and 73 passengers out of 109.

ROTTERDAM, November 27.—It is impossible to converse with Captain Schwensen, who is under medical treatment, his nervous system being strongly affected. He has received nobody. The Captain of the City of Amsterdam gives the following information: It was a very dark night. When the Pomerania was off Folkestone, Captain Schwensen left the bridge for a moment, and when he felt the shock he immediately returned to the bridge, but he can not recollect subsequent events. The City of Amsterdam, which was passing at the time, heard the cries for help but could see nothing. Nevertheless she lowered her life boats and Captain Schwensen was found floating on a piece of wood.

LONDON, November 27.—All the survivors of the Pomerania disaster left for London or the Continent this morning with the exception of three children, who are supposed to have been orphaned by the disaster. One of these children is Martha Miller, aged four years, who says she is the daughter of a captain now at Buenos Ayres. The child adds that her mother, sister Dora and brother Alie were on board the steamer.

F. Sannier also landed at Cherbourg two children, girls, aged respectively three years and nine months. They remain in Dover not identified.

Those Cipher Dispatches.

WASHINGTON, November 27.—There is a definite plan agreed upon about the investigation of the cipher dispatches. Two weeks ago Singleton of Mississippi came to this city and had a consultation with Springer of Illinois, for the purpose of devising some plan of preventing the Republicans from making any more capital out of the cipher dispatches. It is thought by the Bourbons, that they must not be backward and allow the Republicans to offer a resolution upon the subject. Correspondence was had with Clarkson N. Potter, and a day or two ago Springer went to New York for the purpose of consulting with him and other prominent Bourbons. Springer is charged with a resolution asking that an investigation be ordered into the matters charged in Republican newspapers, and that White-law Reid be summoned as the first witness to tell how and where he obtained the dispatches that he has published. This resolution is to be offered on the first day it can properly come before congress. It is arranged in such a way that there can be no opposition. Randall has been notified, and he will, of course, recognize Democrats.

Butler has not yet arrived, but Democratic congressmen from the South claim to have been in correspondence with him and to have received the assurance that he has the control of a large number of cipher dispatches sent by the Republican leaders in 1876 of a very compromising character, and that he will lay these before the Potter committee as soon as it re-assembles.

Of the Democratic congressmen who have arrived, not one has yet been found who favors the renomination of Tilden in 1880, or even a vote for him in the Democratic national convention.

Judge Lynch on Horseback.

HANFORD Cal. Nov. 27.—A very strange affair occurred near this place last night. It seems that Perry Phillips endeavored to dispossess W. H. Davenport of his homestead by buying it of the Southern Pacific railroad company, which claims the property of about everybody in this section. After getting a railroad claim to Davenport's farm, Phillips put a man named Hodges and his family in a house that he moved on one corner of the land. In the middle of the night a hundred horsemen surrounded Hodges' house, all thoroughly disguised with red cloaks and red hoods, and the leader bearing a sword. The family were aroused and permitted to remove their effects from the house, after which it was burned to the ground, and Hodges was warned not to locate on the property of any other settler. A party of men who came to the scene, attracted by the fire, were ordered off at the peril of their lives and obeyed. The horsemen then rode off in good order.

Fire at Stockton.

STOCKTON, November 27.—This evening at 5 o'clock the barbed wire works, adjoining Lisenden & Co.'s agricultural works, and controlled by the Granger's Union, caught fire by the accidental explosion of a coal-oil lamp, and was almost wholly destroyed. The machinery is badly damaged, but to what extent is not known. It is impossible to compute the loss at present. There was no insurance on the property.

Sierra Nevada.

A Gold Hill News reporter recently overheard a noted mining superintendent discourse as follows:

"Now," continued he, "as to there being no change of control, that is too thin. Skae has been outgeneraled, captured and compelled to surrender his forces. The Sierra Nevada is like a conquered Turkish province, nominally ruled by the Porte but really by the Otar. The Sierra Nevada is nominally controlled by Skae but really by Flood. There is certainly there a power behind the throne greater than the throne itself. This is unfortunate; unfortunate for the stockholders and for the people generally. It would have been better for all to have had another power come up in Virginia and build on the strength of the new bonanza. This might have been done easily but for Skae's mismanagement. To my certain knowledge he was waited upon and told by mining men, both from the Comstock and San Francisco, that if he did not look out he would be beaten; but he said that the thing was impossible. Even then there were rumors of the war in the air. Then Skae was asked to allow Jones to have the management of the mine and make the fight; but no; he was sure that he was strong enough to carry the thing through against all opposition, and now he's captured."

Horrible Accident.

[From the Eureka Leader, of Wednesday.]

Mr. Tognini last evening received the news of a most horrible accident, the victim of which being Giovanna Angello Margorah. He was employed at a coal-pit, seven miles west from J. Winzell's ranch, west of Mineral Station. The pit had been burnt and the deceased was engaged in watching it. On the night of the 25th it is supposed that a fire broke out in the coal, and that in endeavoring to extinguish the flames he became exhausted and fell into the burning mass. John Esere, a workman at the same place, on visiting the pit on the morning of the 26th, discovered Margorah's body in the live coals. He grasped the unfortunate man's legs and attempted to pull him out, but the roasted flesh peeled away from the bones. Assistance was procured and the poor victim's remains were removed from the pit, but he was literally baked and burned beyond all recognition. A coffin was sent down this morning and the body will be brought to Schwamb's undertaking rooms for burial. Margorah had been employed at the pit for the last three months, was industrious, and had the esteem of his countrymen. He has no relatives here, but leaves a family of four children in Italy. He was a man of fine physique, aged about 45 years, and was a steady, faithful workman.

hesitate to take the last penny from a hard-working man, woman or do all their buying by sending orders direct to the Mechanics' Store, and thereby avoid paying enormous prices to the merciless grabbers who infest every city and town on the coast.

All are treated alike—a person living 500 miles away sending an order obtains

FELLOWS'
COMPOUND SYRUP OF HYPOPHOSPHITES.
THIS DISCOVERY
Is the result of a series of Scientific Experiments based upon the theory that "for the successful cure of Wasting Diseases, the nervous system must be made vigorous and healthy."
One of the first symptoms of disease affecting either the Liver, Lungs, Heart, Stomach, or Genital Organs, is a loss of nervous power.
This is followed by muscular relaxation, weakness, and emaciation of all the organs which depend upon them for health or involuntary muscular action.
The inventor, acting upon this idea, that the muscles and nerves depend upon each other for efficient strength and action, and that they must be treated directly in order to speedily and permanently cure diseases of the organs which they control, became convinced, after months of experiment, that no other preparation produced such potent and direct effects upon the nervous system as his

Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites
and except in cases of actual organic loss, that it would restore patients suffering from these maladies.

Amongst the diseases overcome by the use of this remedy are the following:—
Chronic Constipation,
Chronic Dyspepsia,
Asthma,
Chronic Bronchitis,
Consumption,
Chronic Diarrhea,
Chronic Laryngitis,
Melancholia,
Nervous Debility.

Debility, resulting from Typhoid and other low fevers, Diplopia, Prostration, Erythema, Hypochondria, Nervous Excitability, Marasmus or Wasting of the Muscles, Aphonia or Loss of Voice, Sluggishness of the Liver, Interrupted and Painless Action of the Heart, Suppression of the Urine caused by mucous obstruction of the Urethra and Air Passages leading thereto, and Debility from various causes.
Indigestion and habitual Constipation almost always arise from weakness of the muscles and nerves of the stomach and bowels.
In such cases, Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites has proved itself of the greatest service by inducing healthy peristaltic action of the intestines. The evacuations soon become copious and healthy, without producing the effect of purgative medicine.
Weakness of the Joints and Muscles, Infirmity of the Blood, and Inward Warmth may be cured by attention to the regularly described doses, and by due regard to the habits of life.

FELLOWS'
Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites
The power of arresting diseases displayed by this preparation is honorably acknowledged by the medical faculty in every section where it has been introduced, and the large sale is the best guarantee of the estimation in which it is held by the public.
This syrup will cure PULMONARY CONSUMPTION in the first and second stages, will give great relief and prolong life in the third. It will cure ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS, LARYNGITIS and COUGHS. It will cure all diseases originating from want of MUSCULAR ACTION and NERVOUS FORCE.
